The screenshot shows the 'Google Translate Chrome Extension Options' dialog box. It features a title bar with the Google Translate logo and the text 'Chrome Extension Options'. Below the title, there are three main sections: 'My primary language:' with a dropdown menu set to 'Spanish'; 'Pop-up translations:' with three radio button options: 'Display icon that I can click to show pop-up.' (selected), 'Immediately display popup.' (with a sub-note: 'Any text selected in your Chrome browser gets sent to the Google server to determine if a translation should be displayed.'), and 'Don't display icon or pop-up.' (with a sub-note: 'You can still translate selected text by clicking the Google Translate extension icon.'). At the bottom left are 'Save' and 'Reset' buttons. At the bottom right are links for 'Google Translate Homepage' and '©2016 Google - Privacy'.
